

10th Anniversary Celebration
Flamenco Arts Festival
Santa Barbara 2009

GALA PERFORMANCE – One Night Only!
COMPAÑIA MARÍA JUNCAL - DIRECT FROM SPAIN
in the U.S. Premiere of Tercera Llamada - Moment of Enchantment
Saturday, September 26 / Lobero Theatre / 7:30 p.m. / $60, $48, $38

The Flamenco Arts Festival celebrates ten years of presenting world-class flamenco music, dance and song on stage at the Lobero Theatre during Hispanic Heritage Month. This year's celebration will include a spectacular presentation with award-winning Spanish dancer, María Juncal, who brings her company from Spain to Santa Barbara to present her latest production, Tercera Llamada - Moment of Enchantment, and who will also conduct a series of workshops for children and adults. The ticket to this event includes the special presentation.

Special Presentation
LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
JUAN TALAVERA

On Saturday, September 26, Juan Talavera (Los Angeles) will be presented with the Festival's highest honor, the Lifetime Achievement Award, at the Lobero Theatre. Mr. Talavera, a pioneer in California's flamenco community, has studied and performed with many of the leading Spanish flamenco masters and performed for over 15 years in Santa Barbara in the city-wide Fiesta celebrations. He tours with his company and continues to make artistic contributions to the development of the next generation of flamencos.

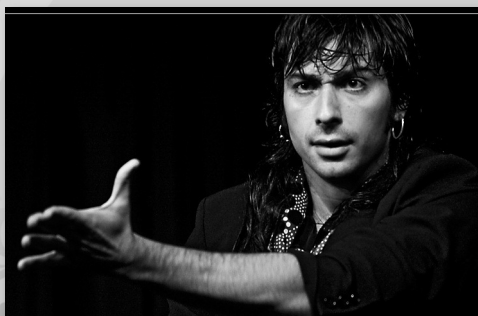

The special presentation begins at 7:30 p.m. and the María Juncal performance follows immediately after the presentation.
